

Public Interest/ Public Service Law Courses

CUA faculty members recommend the following courses to those interested in public interest/ public service law. Courses have been organized into course clusters to aid students who wish to concentrate in a particular area of law. For more information, students may consult the Announcements, or may contact Professor J.P. Ogilvy, CUA's faculty advisors, or the academic dean's office for individual guidance.

Public Interest/ Public Service Law Course Cluster

Administrative Law
Not for Profit Organizations
Criminal Procedure
Evidence
Remedies
Law & Public Policy
Becoming a Lawyer
Supervised Fieldwork
Directed Research
Clinical Course
Issue-Related Course

Administrative and Legislative Law

- Administrative Law
- Legislation
- Advanced Administrative Law
- Banking Law
- Civil Rights Law
- Employment Law
- Environmental Law
- FCC Practice and Procedure
- Federal Courts
- Federal Income Tax
- Federal Regulation of Food & Drug
- Government Contracts
- Government Contracts, Grants and Programs
- Law & Public Policy
- Law of Federal Aid Programs

Clinical Courses

- Columbus Community Legal Services
  - Families and the Law Clinic
  - General Practice Clinic
  - Advocacy for the Elderly
  - Consumer Protection Project
- Innocence Project
- D.C. Law Students in Court
- Criminal Prosecution Clinic

Family Law

- Family Law
- Remedies
- Trusts and Estates
- Health Law
- Juvenile Law
- Women and the Law

Health Law

- Health Law
- Administrative Law
- Federal Regulation of Food and Drug
- Health Care Fraud and Abuse

International Public Interest Law

- Comparative Constitutional Law
- Comparative Law Seminar: Political Violence
- Immigration and Nationality Law
- International Human Rights Law
- International Humanitarian Law: Peacekeeping

Labor and Employment Law

- Agency Law
- Labor Law
- Fair Employment Law
- Employment Law
- ERISA: Pensions
- ERISA: The Labor Management Perspective
- Immigration and Nationality
- Labor Law Seminar: Collective Bargaining and Labor Arbitration
- Practice and Procedure Before the NLRB
- White Collar and Business Crimes

Law and Public Policy

- Criminal Procedure
- Administrative Law
- Family Law
- Law & Public Policy
- Administration of Criminal Justice
- Advanced Administrative Law
- Bankruptcy
- Civil Rights Law
- Consumer Transactions
- Creditors' and Debtors' Rights
- Death Penalty Seminar
- Education Law
- Employment Law
- Environmental Law
- Fair Employment Law
- Federal Courts
- Federal Regulation of Food and Drugs
- First Amendment Problems of the Media
- First Amendment Seminar: Religious Liberty
- Government Contracts
- Government Contracts, Grants and Programs
- Health Law
- Immigration and Nationality Law
- International Human Rights Law
- Labor Law
- Law of Federal Aid Programs
- Legal Rights of People with Disabilities
- Legislation
- Legisprudence: Theories of Lawmaking
- Local Government Law
- Military Law: A Comparative Perspective
- National Security Law and Policy
- Not for Profit Organizations
- Tax Policy
- Veteran's Law
- Women and the Law

ADR/Trial Skills

- Advanced Civil Procedure
- Complex Litigation
- Criminal Procedure
- Evidence
- Interviewing, Counseling, and Negotiating Skills
- Pre-Trial Litigation
- Mediation and Arbitration Skills
- Trial Advocacy
- Trial Practice

*Students who wish to further specialize their studies may want to consider applying to an institute. For more information, visit <http://www.law.edu/clinics/institutes/index.cfm> .