

CELEBRATE PRO BONO WEEK

Monday, October 24

Pro Bono Fair
11am, Arnold & Porter

Learn about new pro bono opportunities with local legal services providers assisting veterans, immigrants, domestic violence victims and more.

Tuesday, October 25

Take the CUA Law Pro Bono Challenge
11:30am—1pm, Café

Stop by for early Halloween candy and to fill out a pledge card.

Wednesday, October 26

Preparing for a Public Interest Career
12pm, Room 220

Professor Mullen will offer guidance on preparing for a career in public service and the importance of incorporating pro bono work.

Pro Bono: Good for the Public,
Good for You

3:30pm, Reception preceding in the Atrium
4:10pm, Panel in Slowinski Courtroom

Panelists will share how pro bono work benefits the client and the advocate, from skills development and fulfillment to enhanced marketability.

Thursday, October 27

Take the CUA Law Pro Bono Challenge
11:30am—1pm, Café

Stop by for early Halloween candy and to fill out a pledge card.

Friday, October 28

Take the CUA Law Pro Bono Challenge
11:30am—1pm, Café

Stop by for early Halloween candy and to fill out a pledge card.

Questions? Contact Jen Tschirch, Pro Bono Coordinator at tschirch@law.edu