

Pro Bono at CUA

Pro Bono: Good for the Public, Good for You

Panelists from the private and public sectors will share how pro bono work benefits not only the client but also the advocate, from skills development and fulfillment to enhanced marketability.

Wednesday, October 26, 4:10 p.m.
Slowinski Courtroom

Reception preceding at 3:30 p.m in the Atrium.

*Attendance may be applied toward
Honor/Professional Ethics
Education Requirement***

Questions?

Contact Jen Tschirch, Pro Bono Coordinator, at tschirch@law.edu.