

FUNDING FOR SUMMER WORK

Columbus School of Law

The Catholic University of America

If you are interested in learning more about any of the following programs, please contact the organization directly or check with an OCPD staff member. To explore more possibilities, consult Chapter 8 of Serving the Public: A Job Search Guide (Harvard Law School), in OCPD on the “Public Interest” shelf and pslawnet.org.

I. CUA FUNDING

Charles and Louise O'Brien Fellowships

The Fellowship was established by the Reverend Raymond C. O'Brien, a professor at the law school, in honor of his grandparents. Students who will be enrolled at CUA for the fall 2011 semester and completing their first, second, or third year of law school are eligible to apply for grants in conjunction with their work at a pro bono assignment during the summer. The Fellows are chosen from essays submitted by eligible students describing their summer placement in the context of the interaction between their religious perspective and their legal careers. At present, each student chosen has received a grant of $6,000. Applications will be available in late February and due to the Office of Financial Aid (Room 314) at the end of March.

Students for Public Interest Law (“SPIL”) Stipends

Students for Public Interest Law (“SPIL”) spends the academic year raising money to fund stipends for law students who obtain summer public interest jobs. The number of stipends awarded depends upon the fundraising efforts of student volunteers and donations from local businesses and law firms. SPIL's primary fundraising source is its auction held every spring semester. SPIL fund 15-17 stipends each year; generally in the amount of $3,500. If you are interested in applying for a SPIL stipend, applications will be available in late February and due to the Office of Financial Aid (Room 314) at the end of March.

Eric Weissman Endowed Scholarship Fund

Students who complete the SPIL application process will also be reviewed for the Weissman Memorial Scholarship.

Patton Boggs LLP Public Policy Fellowship

Using the attorney's fees earned from a successful pro bono case won by John Oberdorfer, Patton Boggs, LLP established the Patton Boggs Foundation to commemorate the retirement of founding partner James R. Patton, Jr. The Foundation annually grants Public Policy Fellowships to exceptional law students (one of whom is a CUA student) who spend their summers working on public policy matters for non-profit institutions or government agencies. The student must have been offered a summer position or be under serious consideration for a summer position doing policy work. The position need not be in the Washington, D.C. area. The stipend is $5,000. If you are interested in applying for the Fellowship, you need to complete application materials in March. For more information, please contact the Office of Career and Professional Development.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL FUNDING

ABA Commission on Homelessness and Poverty / John J. Curtin, Jr. Legal Internship

Website: <http://www.abanet.org/homeless/curtin.shtml>

Email: homeless@abanet.org

The student must work for an organization run by a bar organization or legal services organization anywhere in the country that serves homeless clients or those at risk of becoming homeless. The ABA provides a list of organizations the student may consider; however this list is not exclusive. The student may work at any approved homeless advocacy project run by a bar association or legal services program. A $2,500 stipend is awarded for no less than 8 weeks of continuous work between May 1 and October 1. Applications will be available online and the deadline is the end of March.

ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources Minority Fellowships in Environmental Law

Website:

http://www.abanet.org/environ/committees/lawstudents/fellowship\_home.shtml

Email: connellj@staff.abanet.org

The ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources offers several

Fellowships for eligible minority law students. This fellowship program is available to 1st and 2nd year law students or 3rd year evening students from economically or socially disadvantaged or other underrepresented groups, including, but not limited to, age, ability/disability, sexual orientation, cultural, linguistic, or geographical background. Each successful recipient will receive a $5,000 ($6,000 for New York Fellows) stipend in exchange for participation in the Fellowship program. There is an 8-10 week minimum commitment wherein the Fellow will work on legal matters of a government agency or public interest organization in the fields of environmental, energy, or resources law, with an emphasis on air pollution. DC deadline for working at Environmental Law Institute is mid-November and the NY deadline is mid-November.

AFL-CIO Law Student Union Summer

Website: <http://www.aflcio.org/aboutunions/unionsummer/lsus.cfm>

Email: nschiffe@aflcio.org

Law Student Union Summer (LSUS) is a unique and exciting 10-week internship for law students that combines front-line labor-related public interest legal work with grassroots organizing in real, ongoing campaigns by AFL-CIO affiliated unions in various regions of the country. Interns work on-site, at locations throughout the country. The weekly stipend is $600 and transportation and housing are provided. The program starts on June 1, 2010, and runs through Aug. 6, 2010. Applicants must have a demonstrated interest in the practice of labor-related public interest law and may be first or second year students; students who have taken one or more labor law courses and who have experience in organizing and/or community activism are preferred. Application deadline: mid-October for 2Ls; end of January for 1Ls.

Alaska Conservation Foundation Internship Program

Website:

http://alaskaconservation.org/\_pages/programs\_amp\_initiatives/conservation\_internship\_program.php

Email: info@akcf.org

Internship candidates complete for assignments in organizations involved with environmental/resource management, habitat protection, advocacy, policy implementation, land and park management, marine conservation, and wildlife and endangered species protection. There will be 12-16 Fellows for a term of 12 weeks and the stipend is $4,000. Application deadline is mid-February.

Arthur C. Helton Fellowship Program

Website: <http://www.asil.org/helton-guidelines.cfm>

Email: fellowship@asil.org

Funded by contributions from members of The American Society of International Law, this one-time award provides financial assistance in the form of “micro-grants” for law students and young lawyers to pursue field work and research in the areas of international law, human rights, and humanitarian affairs. Fellows will undertake their fieldwork between April 2010 and August 2010 in association with an established educational institution, international organization, or non-governmental organization working in areas related to international law, human rights, and humanitarian affairs. Pay is $1,000 in micro-grants. Application deadline is mid-January. Due to administrative constraints, only the first 50 completed applications, submitted on-line, and received in full by the submission deadline will be reviewed.

Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF)

Website: <http://www.aefdc.org>

Email: aefboard@yahoo.com

AEF awards summer fellowships and grants, generally in the amount of $2,500, each year to law students from around the nation. The primary purpose of the fellowships is to fund a student’s internship with a public interest organization that benefits either the metropolitan Washington, D.C. community-at-large and/or the Asian Pacific American community. Such organizations include governmental organizations and other non-profits serving the public interest. The internship must be unpaid (except for nominal payment for such items as transportation), arranged by the student, and extend at least ten weeks or a total of 400 hours. Any student at an accredited law school who is enrolled at least part-time, as determined by the school, who is in good standing, who is a candidate for a law degree, and who has not previously received an AEF Fellowship, is eligible to apply for an AEF Fellowship. Students must secure their sponsorship, and then apply to AEF for funding. Last year’s deadline was end of April.

Bergstrom Child Welfare Law Summer Fellowship – University of Michigan Law School

Website:

<http://www.law.umich.edu/centersandprograms/ccl/calc/Bergstrom/Pages/summerfellowship.aspx>

Email: lixey@umich.edu

The University of Michigan Law School offers placements in the Bergstrom Child Welfare Law Summer Fellowship. Fellows work in various offices around the country specializing in the representation of children, parents and social services agencies. The applicant should have completed their first year of law school but not yet graduated. Placement in a child welfare office can be found after acceptance into the Fellowship. A limited number of stipends are available and up to $500 in travel expenses for training may be provided. Interns must work a minimum of 10 weeks and attend training. The deadline is mid-February.

Charles G. Koch Summer Fellow Program

Website: <http://www.theihs.org/ContentDetails.aspx?id=645>

Email: his@gmu.edu

The Charles G. Koch Summer Fellow Program combines a paid public policy internship with two career skills seminars and weekly policy lectures. You'll gain real-world experience, take a crash course in market-based policy analysis, and hone your professional skills. The intensive ten-week program begins in June and includes a $1,500 stipend and a housing allowance. This fellowship offers the opportunity to work with top policy experts, journalists and academics in a comprehensive program of policy analysis training, professional development, writing, media relations and intellectual exploration. Fellows participate in an 8 week internship at one of D.C.'s market-oriented research organizations, public interest law firms or other state policy organizations around the U.S. Acceptance and placement decisions are made on a rolling basis, so apply early.

Dan Bradley Summer Fellowship

Website:

http://www.calegaladvocates.org/about/item.Dan\_Bradley\_Fellowships

Email: cmoulton@pic.org

This fellowship funds four to six law students to work at California legal services programs for a minimum of 10 weeks over the summer. Applicants must be law students and have a strong interest in working to defend and expand the legal rights of the poor and the disadvantaged. The stipend is $3,500 (Legal Aid Association of California provides $3,000 and the host legal services program funds $500). The application must be submitted jointly by the student and an eligible legal services program. Last year, the deadline was mid-April.

Deborah T. Poritz Summer Public Interest Legal Fellowship Program – New Jersey Summer Public interest Legal Intern Program

Website: <http://www.lsnj.org/internprog.htm>

Email: pkoncius@lsnj.org

Approximately twenty students are placed with various legal services programs, public interest organizations, and government agencies across the state. The program is open to rising second and third year law students. Applicants should demonstrate interest in working in New Jersey in the future. The stipend varies between $550-750 per week for a 10 week period. All applications will be considered in the order in which they are received and hiring decisions will be made on a rolling basis. Interested students are therefore strongly encouraged to apply as early as possible.

Equal Justice America Legal Service Fellowships

Website: <http://www.equaljusticeamerica.org>

Email: dan@equaljusticeamerica.org

Students may work anywhere in the United States, provided that the hiring organization is a non-profit organization providing direct civil legal services to the poor. Equal Justice America funds over 175 students per summer. Students must work full time for at least 10 weeks, and stipends are approximately $4,000. The application deadline is the end of March.

Equal Justice Works Summer Corps Program

Website: <http://www.equaljusticeworks.org/programs/summercorps/general>

Email: summercorps@equaljusticeworks.org

Summer Corps is an AmeriCorps-funded program that provides 355 law students with the opportunity to earn a $1,000 education award voucher for spending the summer in a qualifying internship at a non-profit, public interest organization. County, state and nonprofit public defenders qualify for Summer Corps funding. Students must complete 300 service hours to receive the education award voucher, which can be used to pay current educational expenses or qualified student loans. Last year, the application deadline was the beginning of April.

Federal Communications Bar Association Foundation/Robert E. Lee Scholarship and Internship Fund

Website: http://www.fcba.org/foundation/internship\_stipends.shtml

Email: Heidi@fcba.org

The Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) Foundation awards stipends to law students from its Chairman Robert E. Lee Scholarship and Internship Fund. The Foundation will award at least four $5,000 stipends to law students employed as unpaid summer interns in positions with the FCC and other government agencies or entities with a connection to the communications industry (i.e., broadcasting, cable television, telephony, satellite, wireless, and information technology). Applicants will be considered based on their demonstrated interest in the communications field; having secured or having pending an unpaid summer position for at least 8 weeks with a government agency; their involvement in community activities and their depends on financial assistance in order to accept an unpaid internship. In addition, the Foundation will select one outstanding intern among those chosen to receive an additional stipend of $600 for the summer—the “Max Paglin Award.” Last year’s deadline was mid- March.

Florida Bar Foundation Legal Services Summer Fellowship Program

Website: <http://www.flabarfndn.org/grant-programs/lisa/>

Email: mhepworth@flabarfndn.org

Through the Legal Services Summer Fellowship Program, the Foundation

provides summer fellowships to roughly 40 first- and second-year law students from accredited law schools throughout the nation. Each summer, law students are placed at eligible Foundation-funded legal assistance providers. The purposes of the fellowship program are to: involve law students in the provision of civil legal assistance to the poor in critical areas of need; provide an in-depth educational experience in representing the poor and working with individual clients and client groups in civil matters; increase law student interest in and awareness of the legal problems of the poor and the challenges and satisfactions of representing the poor; and promote commitment to pro bono representation of the poor. Stipend is $5,500 for first year students and $7,000 for second year students. Students must work full time for 11 weeks at a legal services organization in Florida. Last year, the application deadline was the end of January.

Google Policy Fellowship

Website: <http://www.google.com/policyfellowship/index.html>

Email: policyfellowship@google.com

Google Fellows will have the opportunity to work at public interest organizations at the forefront of debates on broadband and access policy, content regulation, copyright and trademark reform, consumer privacy, open government, and more. Fellows will be assigned a lead mentor at their host organizations, but will have the opportunity to work with several senior staff members over the course of the summer. Fellows will be expected to make substantive contributions to the work of their organization, including conducting policy research and analysis; drafting reports and analyses; attending government and industry meetings and conferences; and participating in other advocacy activities. They are looking for students who are passionate about technology, and want to spend the summer diving headfirst into Internet policy. Fellows will receive a stipend of $7,000 for 10 weeks. Last year, applications were due at the end of December.

Haywood Burns Memorial Fellowship for Social and Economic Justice

Website: <http://www.nlg.org>

Email: membership@nlg.org

Over the years, this program has placed hundreds of students with public interest organizations that are struggling to protect and further the civil rights of oppressed people in the United States. The Fellowship funds legal interns at pre-selected public interest organizations nationwide. Students either apply for an internship with a sponsoring organization or may submit a proposal for a student-initiated project. The stipend is between $1,000 and $2,000 for 10 weeks of work, and is paid in two installments by the project. Last year, the deadline was mid-February.

Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia

Website: <http://www.hbadc.org>

Email: info@hbadc.org

The Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia Foundation offers two Fellowships for first and second year law students working in a nonprofit legal services agency in the District of Columbia. Students must secure sponsorship on their own and then apply for funding. The stipend may be up to $5,000 and the term varies depending on the organization. Students must secure sponsorship on their own, and then apply for funding. Last year's deadline was mid-March.

Howrey Externs for Legal Pro Bono Service ("HELPS")

Website: <http://www.howrey.com/firm/community>

"HELPS" sponsors two $5,000 grants for first-year law students enrolled in D.C. area law schools to work full-time (40 hrs/week for 10 weeks) during the summer in a public interest job. Must have a confirmed summer position at a public interest organization located in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. Clerkships, public defenders, and government positions are not eligible.

Janet Stiegler Fellowship – ABA Antitrust

Website: <http://www.abanet.org/antitrust/>

Email: douglasd@staff.abanet.org

The Janet D. Steiger Fellowship Project provides up to 20 first and second year law students the extraordinary opportunity to work in the consumer protection and antitrust departments of state and territorial Offices of Attorneys General throughout the United States. The stipend is $5,000 for a minimum of 8 weeks in the consumer protection department of one of the participating State Attorneys General during the summer of 2010. The program also offers a supplemental housing/travel allowance of up to $2,000 for those students who are not living at home for the summer (administered through the American Bar Association). Last year's application deadline was end of January.

Loyola Law School for Juvenile Law and Policy – W.M Keck Summer Fellowship

Website: <http://www.lls.edu/juvenilelaw/opportunities.html>

Loyola Law School's Center for Juvenile Law and Policy will award two summer associate positions made possible by the W.M. Keck Foundation, to law students who have demonstrated a commitment to public interest law, criminal defense and children's issues. The fellowship provides a generous stipend for two months. The summer fellowship will be a unique opportunity for law students to practice law under the supervision of clinical faculty at the Loyola Law School Center for Juvenile Law and Policy. The application deadline is mid-November.

Massachusetts Bar Foundation Legal Intern Fellowship Program

Website: <http://www.MassBarFoundation.org>

Email: foundation@massbar.org

This program awards approximately 6 stipends to students for volunteer summer internships at non-profit organizations providing civil legal services to low-income clients in Massachusetts. The stipend can be up to $6,000 for 10 weeks. Last year, the application deadline was mid-March.

Minority Fellowship in Environmental Law – New York State Bar Association and New York City Bar Association

Website: <http://www.nysba.org/>

Email: kplog@nysba.org

Minority law students -- first-year, second-year and third year (evening only) -- are eligible for the fellowship program if they are either enrolled in a New York law school or were permanent residents of the state and enrolled in a law school in the United States. A stipend of $6,000 is awarded to spend the summer of 2010(10 weeks minimum) working on environmental cases for government or non-profit law offices. Application deadline is mid-November.

New York City Law Department Summer Honors Program

Website:

http://www.nyc.gov/html/law/html/careers/honors\_application.shtml

Up to fifty fellows work within New York's legal system. The term is 9 weeks, and the stipend is $500/week, for a total of $4,500. There is no final application deadline. Hiring decisions are made on a rolling basis with most offers being extended prior to March 31. Applications from first-year law students should be mailed after December 1. The program also offers free housing to financially eligible applicants.

Peggy Browning Fund Fellowship

Website: <http://www.peggybrowningfund.org>

Email: mmoffa@peggybrowningfund.org

The Fund is a nonprofit corporation established in memory of Margaret A. Browning, a prominent labor attorney and member of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). Stipends are available for approximately forty to fifty law students who dedicate their summers to working for selected labor unions, nonprofit organizations who advance the cause of workers' rights, and the offices of the NLRB. The term is 10 weeks, and the stipend is $4,500. Applications will be available and will begin to be accepted at the beginning of December. The application deadline is mid-January.

Pennsylvania Legal Aid, Inc – Martin Luther King Internship Program

Website - <http://www.palegalaid.net/martin-luther-king-jr-program>

Email: cnewcomer@palegalaid.net

Martin Luther King Jr. (MLK) Summer Internships are available at Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network programs across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during the summer months for law students who are social justice oriented and desire an opportunity to make a difference. Students engage in unique situations through which one might better understand the special legal issues facing individuals who live in poverty and low-income communities. In turn, the summer interns provide valuable and necessary service to the Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network program offices in which they are placed. Each summer, the Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network awards 10 paid internships to current law students to participate in legal services work over the traditional 10-week summer internship period. Salary is determined by the host program. Last year's deadline was end of January.

Political Economy Research Center (PERC) for Graduate Fellowship Program

Website: <http://www.perc.org>

Email: perc@perc.org

PERC's fellowships for graduate students and law students offer the ideal opportunity for those who are interested in researching issues related to natural resources and the environment. Fellows spend 3 months at PERC in Bozeman, Montana, researching and writing a paper under the supervision of a PERC senior fellow. While there, fellows are required to present 2 to 3 seminars to outline, report on, and summarize their research findings. A paper of publishable quality is the expected result. Fellows receive a monthly stipend of $1,600 in addition to reimbursement for reasonable domestic round trip travel expenses to Montana. Last year, the application deadline was mid-February for early decision and mid-March for regular decision.

Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) of Chicago Summer Internship Program

Website: <http://www.pili-law.org>

Email: scurry@pili-law.org

Each summer, PILI funds dozens of 400-hour internships for first and second-year law students from across the country to work at public interest law agencies in the Chicago area. The term is 10 weeks and the stipend is $5,000. Applications can apply to up to eight participating agencies listed in the application materials. Please note, you will need to register on IllinoisProBono.org before you can apply. There is an approval process that can take up to 24 hours. After registering and receiving approval, you may apply online for summer 2010 PILI internships. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis through March.

Robert Masur Fellowship in Civil Liberties

Website: <http://nationinstitute.org/p/masur>

Email: info@nationinstitute.org

The Masur Fellowship enables one first year law student to pursue significant summer activities in the areas of civil rights or civil liberties. Proposed activities include a writing or research project, work with a public interest organization, work on a case under the supervision of a law faculty member or lawyer, etc. A $1,000 honorarium is awarded. Last year's deadline was the beginning of May.

Robert M. Takasugi Summer Fellowship Program

Website: http://takasugifellowship.org/?page\_id=2

Email: ekprather@takasugifellowship.com

The Robert M. Takasugi Public Interest Fellowship promotes the vision and values of public interest legal work in honor of Judge Takasugi, Senior Federal Judge in the Central District of California. From its inception, the Fellowship has selected fellows from across the nation and funded their summer legal work for the public interest. Fellows are selected to work in the San Francisco Bay Area and the Greater Los Angeles Metropolitan Area. The Fellowship funds 1 or more summer law fellows in amounts up to $5,000 for ten weeks of work. Last year, the deadline was the end of March.

South Asian Bar Association Public Interest Fellowship

Website: <http://www.sabany.org/site/fellowship>

Funding is available for four first and second year law students who have demonstrated a commitment to public interest. Fellowships are awarded to either law students of South Asian descent working in an unpaid legal internship or those spending at least 10 weeks of the summer in an unpaid legal internship in the New York area, focusing on the needs of the South Asian community. This program awards 4 fellowships of $4,000 to outstanding law students who have demonstrated a commitment to public service to spend their summer working unpaid in NY area public interest sector. Last year, the application was due at the end of March.

WLALA Fran Kandel Public Interest Grant, Women's Lawyer's Association of Los Angeles

Website: <http://www.wlala.org>

Email: info@wlala.org

The WLALA Foundation was established to increase the utility of the law as an instrument of social justice. The Foundation awards the WLALA Fran Kandel Public Interest Grant to law students for projects that make governmental and social institutions and agencies more accessible and responsive to members of society whose interests are not otherwise adequately recognized or asserted.

The Foundation provides grants for one to three law students working in the public interest arena. Grants fund specific independent projects, usually pursued in conjunction with nonprofit organizations, benefiting the southern California community. The maximum grant amount is $5,000. The application deadline is mid-March.

III. LAW FIRM FUNDING

Many law firms offer “split” summer options where students who work for the firm at least half the summer may be funded to work at a nonprofit organization for the remainder of the firm. Some firms designate the nonprofit organization and others allow the student to choose the placement. The following firms have offered such summer programs:

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP Pro Bono Scholars Program

Must commit for 1st & 2nd summer; DC office only

http://www.akingump.com/files/upload/2010\_ProBonoScholars\_AG.pdf

Arnold & Porter LLP

New York office only (see NALP form)

<http://www.arnoldporter.com>

Blank Rome Comisky & McCauley Public Interest Fellowship

Must commit for 1st & 2nd summer

<http://www.blankrome.com>

Bradley Arant Rose & White of Alabama Public Interest Fellowship

<http://www.babc.com/careers-law-students-mentoring/>

Cadwalader Wickersham & Taft LLP Public Interest Fellowship

NY office only

<http://www.cadwalader.com>

Crowell & Moring Summer Public Interest Fellowship

<http://www.crowell.com/Careers/SummerProgram.aspx>

Dewey & LeBoeuf

Fully paid partial-summer Public Interest Fellowships (any organization)

Phillip W. Buchen Public Interest Fellowship (background in international trade, energy, intellectual property, tax or white collar)

<http://www.deweyleboeuf.com>

Fenwick & West LLP Diversity & Public Interest Fellowship
www.fenwick.com

Goodwin Procter Summer Public Interest Fellowship

DC office only

<http://www.goodwinprocter.com/Careers/Locations/Washington-DC.aspx>

Goodwin Procter Public Interest Fellowship for Law Students of Color

<http://www.goodwinprocter.com/Careers/Diversity/The-Goodwin-Diversity-Fellowships.aspx>

Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP

<http://www.hugheshubbard.com>

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP

New York office only

<http://www.kelleydrye.com>

King & Spalding LLP

<http://www.kslaw.com/About-Us/Public-Service>

K&L Gates Public Interest Fellowship Program

Pittsburgh office only; do not have to commit to summer associate program

<http://www.klgates.com/lawstudents/studentpublicservice/fellowship/>

Miller & Chevalier Summer Public Interest Program

<http://www.millerchevalier.com/Careers/Lawyers/LawStudents/SummerProgram>

Morgan Lewis' Public Interest and Community Service (PICS)

<http://www.morganlewis.com>

Munger Tolles & Olsen LLP

1Ls only; Los Angeles and San Francisco offices only

http://www.mto.com/diversity/1L\_Program\_Description\_2010.pdf

Paul Hastings Janofsky & Walker LLP

http://www.paulhastings.com/careers\_attorneys\_FAQs.aspx

Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP

DC office only

<http://www.shawpittman.com>

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett Public Interest Fellowships

<http://www.simpsonthacher.com>

Steptoe & Johnson Summer Public Service Program

<http://www.step toe.com/careers-summer.html>

Torys LLP

<http://www.torys.com/StudentProgram/Toronto/Pages/toronto-summer.aspx>

Vinson & Elkins LLP Public Interest Split Summer Program

<http://www.velaw.com>

Wiggin & Dana LLP

<http://www.wiggin.com>

G:\LCS\HANDOUTS\SUMFUND.DOC (Updated November 2010)